

You Brighten the Lives Of So Many People

If we lit a birthday candle, not for every year, but for every kind word you've spoken, every caring deed you've done, every life you've ever touched, the room would be filled with a radiant glow.

That's why your birthday is a celebration - and a chance for those who knew you to tell you just how special you are.

In honor of Dixie Good's 80th Birthday
